RUSSIAN AIRMEN RACE SOUTH

WAR AIR FORCE READY TO SKIM SOUTH PACIFIC

Navy's Last Search for the Missing
World Flyers

AWAIT WEATHER

BULLETIN
Aboard Aircraft Carrier Lexington off Howland Island, July 12.—Sixty planes roared from the deck of the Lexington today in a last, mighty effort to locate Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Frederick J. Noonan, lost 11 days ago.

The plan was for the Lexington's 61 planes to survey an area of 36,000 square miles centering about Howland Island.

The planes were in the air at 12:45 p. m. (est.) on the greatest search in navy history.

By the Associated Press
Honnolulu, July 13.—(AP)—The greatest war air force ever assembled for a peace-time mission—61 planes—was poured today ready to skim along the mid-Pacific equator in the navy's last search for Amelia Earhart, missing 11 days.

If weather conditions are favorable, the planes will zoom from the aircraft carrier Lexington to survey an area of 36,000 square miles centering about Howland Island.

Last Message July 12
It was Howland island, a dot of land rising but two feet above the water, that the aviator and her navigator, Frederick J. Noonan, aimed for when they took off from New Guinea—a flight of 2570 miles. Their last radio message on July 2 said they were within 100 miles of their goal, that they couldn't see land and that their fuel supply was almost exhausted.

Officials said the giant carrier expected to reach the search area by dawn, was hampered last night by a tropical storm which might delay the aerial search.

Vast Area Searched
An area 60 miles wide and 600 miles long extending north and south from Howland was mapped for the first day's survey in the hitherto fruitless search.

While the Lexington neared Howland after a journey from San Diego, the coast guard cutter Itasca, a pioneer in the vast hunt, headed toward the Gilbert islands, 600 miles west of Howland.

Will Have to Tell About That Dip to the St. Louis Judge

St. Louis, July 13.—(AP)—A 39-year-old mother who took her 16-year-old daughter for an early morning dip in a park lake here will have to explain just why to the judge.

She was charged with disturbing the peace after police found several articles of feminine wearing apparel hanging on the proverbial hickory tree at the lake shore. The mother and daughter were only wearing "short slips," officers who found them said.

The discarded clothing was handed to the bathers as they stood fast deep in the water. They effected an "under water change" to emerge "nearly dressed," the officers report state.

NEW DIRECTORY FOR KANKAKEE OFF THE PRESS

Reveals Community
Has Grown Since Last Issue

Kankakee's new city directory, the largest ever compiled and replete with data about Kankakee, Aroma, Park, Bonfield, Bourbonnais, Bradley, Buckingham, Essex, Grant Park, Herscher, Irtan, Manteno, Mokena, St. Anne and Wichenor is now off the press and being delivered by R. L. Polk and company.

The new directory reflects marked gains and progress along different fronts. There is an increase of 1,016 names in the city section, over the 1935 figure of 14,856. In addition to this, there are 4,280 names in the section devoted to the smaller communities, making a total of 20,152, the largest number of names that ever appeared in a Kankakee directory.

Pages Are Added
In the classified department of the directory is another reflection of better times. The Kankakee community has added 34 lines of enterprise not here two years ago, with a present total of 293 groups. The directory increased 40 pages over its 1935 predecessor.

Unless one is very much of a transient or under 17 years of age, the directory tells a lot about him, with its thousands of words, abbreviations and symbols. Whether one is married or single, home-owner or renter, head of a family or roomer, employer or employee, whether he has a household of children or none or less caretaker, are some of the facts.

Outside Connection
An important part of the Polk directory service to Kankakee is the distribution of the local directory to free-reference directory libraries maintained by the members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers at the chambers of commerce in other cities where it serves as a guide-book and community advertiser. Also, the Polk company maintains a branch of the directory libraries, with outside directories available for public reference, at the Kankakee chamber of commerce office.

Louise T. Abair is first on the new Kankakee roster and John A. Zwiler is last. Among the surnames listed between these two are Redman, Wildman, Savage, Knickerbocker, Nightingale, Captain, Short-sleeve and Goodchild.

Watseka, July 13.—(RN Special)—The first couple to be married in Illinois county under the new state marriage law, which requires a fiducial examination of both parties, are William J. Brauli, 30, of Chebanse, and Fay Moore, 26, of Chicago.

County Clerk J. M. Janssen issued the license on Saturday free of charge.

On Monday a license was issued to John P. Packey, 23, and Helen Farney, 26, both of Rankin.

MUNSON GIVES INSIGHT INTO SCHOOL COSTS

States Addition To High School is Necessary

REVENUES CUT

An informative talk on the sources of school revenue and the purposes for which it is spent was given by Irving Munson, superintendent of city schools at the Kiwanis luncheon, Monday noon in McBroom's cafe.

The superintendent told of the need in the near future for an addition to the Kankakee high school plant "which several people thought was too large when it was built in 1926." The classrooms have been filled to capacity in recent years, he said. Bonds on the present structure will be retired in 1944.

Improvements Made
Other improvements which are being carried out as fast as available funds permit include additions to the high school library and laboratory equipment, thorough renovation of the various grade school buildings and planning in the future of separate band rooms at the high school.

"We are striving to obtain a good school in every neighborhood," the superintendent said in pointing out the difference between a good school building and a good school. Better teachers are sought to "get more out of the pupils" and to improve scholarship standards, a local shortcoming, he said.

Valuations Cut
Mr. Munson told of the cuts in the assessed valuation of property within the school district from a high mark of $16,497,430 in 1929 to $11,509,965 last year. "That difference made available $100,000 more in 1929 than we now have to run the city school system," the educator explained.

He described the three principal sources of revenue as local taxation from which $220,000 was received last year; state distributive fund which yielded $24,000, and tuition, which produced approximately $7,000.

Costs Analyzed
Greatest single expenditure for education was salaries of teachers which last year totaled $142,067.95. Other major items listed under this division by the speaker were bonds and interest, $25,942.26; wages of janitors, $18,000; coal, $7,500; light and power, $3,830.30; insurance, $2,272.84; and water, $2,136.32.

He called attention to the fact that the general control item of $9,428.16, including board of education expense, school elections, superintendent's salary and office and the like was less than four per cent of the total expenditure. Four per cent is recognized as a good average, he averred.

Superintendent Munson was introduced by Dr. G. E. Irwin, program chairman, and the clubs responded to the talk was made by Attorney E. B. Gower.

Just a Little Fun Say Phil and Will

For disturbing the peace of colored citizens on Willow street near Wildwood avenue at 12:10 a. m. today, Phil Turner of 831 North Wildwood and Will Dillon of 859 East Willow, both colored, were fined $6.25 and $4.25 respectively in police court this morning.

They had been drinking and started what they called a "peaceful" fight in the alley when police were called. Officers John Powell and Don Bleau made the arrest. The fight was termed "peaceful" because knives were not used.

Watsaka to Assist in Big Celebration

Watsaka, July 13.—(RN Special)—Plans for a visit to Danville on August 18 by a large delegation of Watsakans for an inter-city celebration of municipalities along the Dixie highway were made here yesterday.

A delegation from Danville, headed by Mayor Frank Meyer, visited with local businessmen in the office of Dr. W. F. Buckner, acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Frank Blake. The celebration in Danville will be in honor of Vernon Hubbard, pioneer of this part of the state for whom was named the early wagon road from Danville to Chicago.

While in Watsaka, the visitors also discussed another trip to Springfield soon by representatives of municipalities along the Dixie highway in regard to the proposed widening of this road which approximately follows the old Hubbard trail.

TWO MINOR CRASHES
Two minor accidents reported to police on Monday involved autos of William Sheets, 1278 South Seventh avenue, and George Watts of the Jeffers and McBroom garage at South Main street; and Leo Hardesty, 735 North Dearborn avenue and Philip Ashline of 94 Rivard street, Bourbonnais, at the intersection of Dearborn and Mulberry.

RECOVER AUTO
The auto of Ralph Scott of 343 North Dearborn avenue, stolen last Friday, was recovered by state police yesterday at Sylvis, Ill.

Loyalists Hammering At Rebels

Madrid, July 13.—(AP)—Government offensives, bolstered by air power, the Madrid forces never before have shown, hammered insurgent lines today on three separate fronts.

Waves of government fighting planes bombed insurgent batteries and machine gunned troops near Villanueva Del Pardillo, making it virtually impossible for them to send reinforcements to the front west of Madrid.

On the Basque front in northern Spain, government airplanes flew low over the insurgents' zig-zag line from Somorrostro on the Santander highway to the Vainassa sector. Basque and Asturian troops defending Santander against Generalissimo Francisco Franco's northwest drive launched a counteroffensive under cover of the aerial protection.

Government forces also pressed their attack on the Zaragozateruel front east of Madrid. They were reported to have penetrated Albaracin, 23 miles west of Teruel, and to have reached the outskirts of Alcazar, only 11 miles from Zaragoza.

Three insurgent bombers raided the Port of Valencia, seat of the Spanish central government, dropping several big bombs along the waterfront.

Three persons were killed, several others injured and some buildings destroyed before government anti-aircraft batteries drove off the raiders.

WORLD THINKS KANKAKEE TORN OVER STATUARY

Tale of Pants For
Nude Figures
Persists

The Associated Press today sent out to the countless newspapers all over the world which belong to it the following dispatch regarding the collection of statuary recently presented to Kankakee by George Grey Barnard, famous sculptor who lived here as a boy.

"Kankakee, Ill., July 13.—(AP)—There was a calm in Kankakee today as the customary fig leaves mollified conventional criticism aimed at its now widely-famed gift of statuary.

Conservatives Satisfied
"Prominent Kankakeans, who took one look at nudes sculptor George Grey Barnard tendered Central school which he attended as a boy—and hollered for wraps appeared well-satisfied with the stone drapery Barnard aide placed on the marble males.

"The modernists," while retaining their own opinions of the proceedings, were prepared apparently to let the whole matter drop.

"An informal showing after Pietro Ghilini, moulder for Barnard, adorned several of the statues with sufficient plaster to meet most of the objectors' protests. These expressions of sentiments from local leaders.

"George Luehrs, member of the school board, which is custodian of the gift, 'As long as they are in the school there should be the customary fig leaves'.

Alderman's Opinion
"Alderman David W. Wood, 'The figures lose nothing in beauty or symbolism by having fig leaves attached'.

"But die-hards for realism still offered these views:

"Mayor Albert F. Hattenburg: 'Kankakee is as modern as any city. If nude figures are all right in Chicago's art institute they are all right in Kankakee's art museum.'

"Mrs. Vernon McBroom, member of the Business & Professional Women's club: 'Pants on nude statuary—not in these modern times.'

"Protests to the school board brought Ghilini here three weeks ago to do the job of 'plaster tailoring'."

NAVAL CARRIER AIDS IN SEARCH; MISS EARHART

The U. S. S. Lexington (above), with three hundred fliers and 62 navy planes, carried one of the last hopes in the long search for Amelia Earhart, missing in the South Pacific with her navigator, Fred Noonan. After almost all other searchers had despaired, the Lexington prepared to despatch her planes for a high sweep of 200,000 square miles of the equatorial Pacific.

Committee Seeks to Override Veto on Interest Rates

BULLETIN
Washington, July 13.—(AP)—The house override today President Roosevelt's veto of a bill to continue low interest rates on farm loans for two more years.

With a two-thirds majority of those voting required to override, Speaker Bankhead announced the vote was 269 to 97.

The senate has yet to act.

Washington, July 13.—(AP)—The agriculture committee voted today to ask the house to override President Roosevelt's veto of legislation which would continue low interest rates on farm loans for two years.

The house was expected to vote shortly after noon.

Chairman Jones (D-Tex.) said the committee rejected a proposal to ask the house to refer the president's veto message to the committee so that it might attempt to work out a compromise with the White House.

Under terms of the vetoed legislation, the interest rate on federal land bank loans would remain at 3 1/2 per cent during the 1938 fiscal year, and advance to 4 per cent in 1939.

The short-term land bank commissioner loan rate would be reduced from 5 to 4 per cent during the two years.

In his veto message, President Roosevelt said he did not believe continuation of the low rates, put into effect in 1933 during the depression, was justified.

He pointed out continuation of the rates would cost the treasury in excess of $40,000,000 in 1938 and upset budget balancing plans.

Francis Clark Will Give All to Wife

A life interest in the entire estate of Francis Clark, Kankakee man who died recently, I. awarded his wife, Carrie, according to the terms of his will filed today by Attorney Eugene J. LaMarr.

At the death of Mrs. Clark $100 is to be given to a daughter, Birdie Posh and a like sum to another daughter, Celia Blandy.

The remainder of the property is to be divided among the children, Mary Austin, Ida Morell, Harry Clark, Florence McKelroy and the two named above.

The son is appointed executor of the instrument drawn Nov. 7, 1934. It also provides for expenditure of not more than $200 for a monument to the deceased.

Alfalfa Day Date Is Set Ahead, Rains

Rainy weather has forced postponement of the second annual Alfalfa day demonstration which was originally scheduled for tomorrow on the Lawrence Lowe farm near Aroma Park.

Charles R. Hutcheson, nationally known alfalfa authority who directs the demonstrations sponsored by the Republican-News, said this morning that the event would be moved up to July 31.

Similar demonstrations which have had scheduled in Decatur and Urbana this week also had to be postponed for two weeks. Farmers are asked to watch this paper for further details on the next field day.

Father is Accused of Stabbing Youth

Chicago, July 13.—(AP)—Police accused Walter Clos, 45, of stabbing his son, Walter Jr., 7, nearly 20 times about the neck, chest and hands with a butcher knife at their home today.

"Daddy did it; he was sick in the head," the boy told officers taking him to a hospital where Dr. Martin Fallon said he probably would recover.

Lieut. Edward Birmingham said Clos had been drinking and complaining of the heat. The father entered a bedroom where Walter Jr. and his twin brother, Raymond, were sleeping, carrying the knife, Birmingham said.

Raymond awoke, screamed and stepped past his father, arousing his mother, Mrs. Margaret Clos, who summoned Clos' brother-in-law, Joseph Hebel, from a grocery store downstairs.

Birmingham said Hebel snatched a shotgun, broke down the bedroom door and clubbed Clos into submission until police arrived.

Braceville Objects to Moving Station

Chicago, July 13.—(UP)—Mayor J. S. Barton of Braceville, a village near the Grundy-Will county line, led a delegation before the Illinois Commerce commission today to protest removal of the Chicago and Alton railroad of its station there.

Commissioner Joseph H. Wright presided.

Mayor Barton testified the station had been there for 50 years. He believed the village of 380 inhabitants, together with its surrounding towns, produced enough freight and passenger business to justify maintaining the station.

The railroad's counsel indicated they would produce figures to controvert these statements.

Barton said Braceville has 125 residences. All its stores and homes are occupied he said, and its mining and bottling business are "holding their own."

After completion of testimony the commission will take the case under advisement and render a decision later.

BRITISH FLYING BOAT

SHOWERS BLAST HEAT IN SOME PARTS OF LAND

Temperatures Drop
Temporarily and Rise Again

By United Press
Thunderstorms and clouds today broke the heat wave which has caused almost 350 deaths in America's "oven area" since July 7.

J. R. Lloyd, U. S. forecaster at Chicago, said, "throughout most of the area where the heat wave has been taking its daily toll, temperatures the next two days will be about normal. At night, temperatures will be a bit above normal."

Lloyd pointed out that even "normal" weather is "hot" weather in this area in July, but he said he considered the heat wave, as such, to be over.

East Benefited
A slight cooling was in prospect for southern New Jersey, and over a narrow belt extending from southwestern Kansas to southeastern Minnesota. The northern plains will be even warmer tomorrow, forecasters predicted.

Showers and cool winds brought relief yesterday to New England, where 109 persons had died in the worst heat wave in four years. Philadelphia had its coolest day in a week—a maximum of 89 degrees.

New Yorkers cheered a drenching rain which tumbled thermometers precipitately.

Swept by violent wind and rain storms, thermometers slid from 88 to 72 in Chicago in two hours, and dropped below 90 in some sections of Minnesota and South Dakota for the first time in three weeks.

While Rapid City, S. D., recorded a comfortable 64, Kansas City sweltered at 94 degrees, Minneapolis 92, and Cincinnati, St. Louis and Washington, 90.

Storm in Zion City
The storm stopped harbor and river traffic in New York. In Zion, Ill., site of Wilbur Glenn Voliva's temple, scores of trees and power lines were blown down. Lightning destroyed 1,000 barrels of fuel oil in a warehouse.

In a cloudburst swept away six bridges in Nebraska City, Neb. Lightning struck a freight train at Alliance, Neb., killed a transient rider. Houses and garages were unroofed and telephone poles and trees leveled by a violent wind near Brazil, Ind.

In Bismark, N. D., heart of last summer's drought, Gov. William Langer placed his state's 15 rolling kitchens at disposal of needy farmers, said some of them would be hired by the state "independently" to cook.

ESCAPE POLAR STORM ON HOP TO CALIFORNIA

Flying Over Desolate Northern Canada

DUE TOMORROW

BULLETIN
Seattle, July 13.—(AP)—The trans-polar Russian fliers messaged their position at 1:20 p. m. (est.) today as 400 miles north of the United States boundary but indicated they were not receiving messages, including perhaps weather advice.

The position 400 miles north of the international boundary was 150 miles south of Fort St. John and east of the Rockies. An hour earlier the Soviet flight agent here, in response to a query from the plane, advised the fliers to head westward to avoid storms in the Canadian Rockies with Chicago instead of San Francisco as the possible terminus of the Moscow flight.

The later message at 2:20 said simply: "Everything is all right. I don't receive your."

San Francisco, July 13.—(AP)—Safely through a north pole snowstorm, three Russian fliers roared today enroute from Moscow to San Francisco.

Their big plane had covered approximately 4,000 miles of the 6,000 mile journey and army officers calculated the aviators might arrive here at 2 a. m. tomorrow (est).

The fliers gave their position at 10:35 a. m. (est) as latitude 58 degrees 30 minutes and longitude 120.

Army officers said the position indicated the plane had reached northern British Columbia between Fort Nelson and Hudson's Hope.

This would place it approximately 1,600 miles north of San Francisco. Hurdling over a cyclone and fighting through a snowstorm, the big single-motored monoplane crossed safely over the north pole last night, and early today flew over Great Bear lake.

120 Miles an Hour
A radio message at 6:21 a. m. est. breaking through static which shut out U. S. army signal corps stations listening in the United States and Alaska, reported "everything OK" as the plane flew over McKenzie territory about 1,400 miles south of the pole. The message was intercepted by the Canadian signal corps.

Army officers estimated the plane's speed at approximately 120 miles an hour, far above that of the preceding Russian plane which landed at Vancouver, Wash., about 70 miles sort of its goal.

Belgian Cabinet Reported Resigned

London, July 13.—(UP)—The Belgian cabinet resigned today, an exchange telegraph dispatch from Brussels reported.

Premier Paul Van Zeeland, the dispatch said, in offering his resignation to the king, associated himself with the views of Minister of Justice Victor de Laveleye who resigned yesterday in a dispute over the political amnesty bill which he wrote.

The bill provided for pardon of men sentenced for political offenses during the world war, or as a result of it. War veterans, particularly, demonstrated against the bill.

JAPANESE ASK THEIR RIGHTS BE RESPECTED

Empire Leaders To Use Military Measures in China

CRISIS NEARING

Tokyo July 13.—(AP)—The Japanese cabinet today reported that the Japanese government has decided to use military measures to solve the North China crisis unless the Chinese government accepts all Japan's terms.

"We are making full preparations for the use of military force," said a member of the cabinet.

The decision to carry out the military measures was said to have been reached by the Japanese cabinet today after a long session.

Three Japanese soldiers were killed and Chinese troops suffered heavy casualties in a clash today near Fengtai, said a communiqué from the Japanese garrison in North China.

Foreign Minister Koki Hirota appealed to a war council of Japan's industrial leaders, bankers and business men to support the government's plans to deal with the emergency.

Japan's demands are fourfold: withdrawal of troops from the area; cessation of hostilities; withdrawal of Japanese troops from the area; and support of Japanese activities.

"We have no axe to grind in China," but our rights there must be respected," Hirota told the council.

Japan's business leaders, who were given the right to voice their views, said they were ready to support the government's plans to deal with the emergency.

The American government has offered to buy the plants from the Japanese, but the Japanese have refused the offer.

AGE OF VIOLENCE

We have had the age of stone, the age of brass, the age of iron and the age of this, that and the other thing; but when future historians come to write about this particular era in world history, they can hardly do anything else than call it the age of violence.

That is to say that it is a time in which men seem to have given up the old notion that disputes could be settled by reason and compromise. When nerves are overstrained by reason and compromise, the growth of the age of violence is not so much in the future as it is in the present.

So we have a tortured Europe today, with its incredible war in Spain and its desperate preparations for a bigger and more ruinous war. We have mass executions in Russia, pogroms and concentrations camps in Germany, and the rule of strutting might in Italy and lesser lands. And in our own country we have bitter industrial warfare on half a dozen fronts, with armed pickets, vigilante movements, massed troops and all the other distressing features of a regime of unabashed violence.

All of this makes the present a hard time to live through. For it is not so much the fact of violence that is distressing as it is the fact that men resort to it more and more readily. Considering that civilization basically is little more than the development of restraints on man's impulse to violent action, it is not hard to see why in this trend an ominous sign that civilization is collapsing.

There would be little point in reciting this, if there were nothing left for us to do but sit resignedly by and wait for full catastrophe. But the point for Americans to remember is that the growth of the age of violence has been much slower on this side of the water than elsewhere. For all our troubles, we are still committed to the nonviolent theory of human equality.

In other words, it is not yet too late for us to turn away from this drift toward the blind belief that might makes right. And we can best do so by reminding ourselves constantly of the fact that continued confidence in our democratic processes is our one and only defense.

For a confidence in democracy is nothing less than a confidence in the inherent decency and sanity of the human race. We rely on majority rule, peaceful persuasion and open debate because we believe that in the long run men have the good sense and the good will to make such things work.

That is why these resorts to violence in our own land are so ominous. To pretend that they take place, that confidence of ours is broken down; and to the extent that it is broken down, the strength of our democracy is lessened. We are a long way from Germany and Russia—but until we insist on peaceful settlements and the rule of reason in place of force, we are headed in the direction of those nations.

LIFE-SAVING EXPENSES
A good deal of rather loose talk has been indulged in lately about the life-saving expense which the U. S. government was put in its search for Amelia Earhart. The estimates seemed to start at $200,000 or thereabouts and go on up, depending on the enthusiasm of the estimator.

Now it is perfectly true that it cost money to send ships like the Colorado and the Lexington off on a cruise. They have large crews and the crews are well paid. The searching planes burned a good deal of gasoline. All in all, you could make quite a bit out of it.

But the thing to remember is that practically all of this expense would have gone on even if there had been no search at all. The Colorado, the Lexington and the other warships were in commission; they would have been paid for their fuel, their food, their crew and their maintenance. A great deal of money was spent on the search, but all but a few dollars of it would have been spent anyway, in ordinary naval routine.

MAKE GAME OF "CURE"
Try it. If possible, get a new slant on everything and everybody. Make an effort to cultivate people you don't like. Ask more people to come in when you are talking to others who are not thinking or brooding.

Can you sing? No? That's fine. Think sing. Don't hum, but hear the words to a "one or two you like and let it go. While it it suits you. It keeps you off balance. Don't take yourself too seriously. Say, "I need in forger. I'm a lousy singer." You might surprise yourself.

Nerve fatigue results from so many things that we could control, if we tried very, very hard. But we work at trying. Make it a game. Try new roads. Get out of the rut of your feelings. Work may not be easier but it may wear a pleasant face.

It never hurts to risk a little change.

FLOWERS AIR MAILED. BRIDES
Cleveland July 13 (UPI)—Cleveland brides have been able to wear fresh California bouquets at their weddings. The flowers, telegraphed and air-mailed from San Francisco and arrive before sunrise.

It costs the Canadian government about 1 cent a letter to deliver mail by air into remote sections of the country where dog teams, canoe and river steamers formerly carried it.

"You sneaked a terrible lot of corn over on me last week. I'm surprised I even made here any more!"

LOUIS PLAYS SOFT BALL AND SINGS, "THAT OLD GANG OF MINE"

EASIEST SPORT? WHY, RASSLIN'! LOOK AT BRONKO

By HENRY MCLEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent
New York, July 13.—(UP)—A group of us intellectuals were sitting around a campfire the other night, toasting marshmallows and playing parches, when someone up and asked this question:

"Of all the sports, which is the easiest to master?"

After hesitating, allowing my friends to name their choices, and argue heatedly in their behalf, I quickly laid down my toasting fork and ended the debate by saying that wrestling was the one and only answer.

I submitted Bronko Nagurski, and his amazingly quick climb to the championship of the world as proof. Bronko made the switch from football fullback to world champion wrestler so swiftly that he still was calling signals when they lifted his hand in triumph. I don't recall his calling information at hand, but I believe that Bronko has abandoned the gridiron for mat.

His a fine chap

New Bronko is a mighty fine boy, with a brilliant pair of biceps, a lovely matching set of triceps and fibulae, and a Hart-Schaffner-Walker torso. But until he took up wrestling he never had proved that he was an out and out genius. What I mean is, he wasn't a child prodigy who wrote sonnets at the age of one, played the harpsichord at two, bested Titanic Thompson at poker at three, and took to wearing glasses and an ear phone at five. Yet the moment Bronko turned to wrestling he started getting results with a speed that pales the efforts of Nabila Gray, Yehudi Menuhin, the late Thomas Edison, and a nephew of Einstein's named Pete or Horace or something Germanic like that.

To me this is pretty positive proof that wrestling is as simple as a backward member of the Juke family. You don't hear of any man learning to play championship golf, tennis, polo, baseball, handball, or croquet that quickly. All the other sports require years of diligent practice.

They all do it

Nagurski isn't the only world champion wrestler to break into the bloom almost overnight. Danno O'Mahoney, the fearsome Irishman with the distinctive "Irish whisp" was another. Danno, as I get it, was marching down the streets of Dublin with his regiment when an American wrestler promoter trekked him for the championship of the world. And he achieved the title almost before he had time to get his leggings off. One day a soldier, without any experience in the exact science of grunt and groan; the next a magnificent performer, with every grimace, every bit of pantomime, done to pat.

Now to watch Nagurski in action the first chance I have because I am interested to see what new method of attack he has developed. Being a football player, I assume he will employ something like the touch of Pop Warner, Bernie Bierman, Wallace Wade, or Lynn Waldorf in it. I'll offer my opinion on his two weak side or perhaps a double spring. The latter, because he has been so successful in the past, and wrestling will never let him be said that I cast the first stone.

KID CHOCOLATE FIGHTS CHAPPIE TONIGHT IN N. Y.

By DREW MIDDLETON
New York, July 13.—(UP)—In 1930 the "Kid" Chocolate fights tonight in the 23rd fight of his comeback campaign. He has won 21 fights and he may take his place in ring history as the man who successfully broke into the ancient maxim of the prize ring: they never come back.

Kid Chocolate hit America in 1928 after more than 100 fights in Cuba and went to work in the featherweight and lightweight divisions.

He won the slightly phony junior lightweight title from Branny Bass in 1931. Then he fought Tony Canzoneri, who was the lightweight champion, and Tony beat him in the 15th round of the fight.

The kid's last fight was a loss to Lou Feltman and beat a lot of other fellows like Pete Neno and Johnny Farr. The money he has earned was nearly $250,000 in 1931—kept coming in and going out.

Finally the immigration authorities deported him because he had no permit from the secretary of labor to land in the United States. He returned but Frankie Kick beat him and Canzoneri knocked him out.

In Cuba at 135 broke kick and fouled he started his comeback last year.

He is back in the ring in an idol in the southwestern Illinois city. He is back in the ring in an idol in the southwestern Illinois city. He is back in the ring in an idol in the southwestern Illinois city.

Pity the Amateurs! They'll Get Medals

Chicago, July 13.—(UP)—Amateurs competing in the 400-500 Chicago golf tournament July 21-25 at Midway country club will be striving for four prizes, none valued at more than $75, and medals, the tourney committee announced today.

One is a watch Nagurski in action the first chance I have because I am interested to see what new method of attack he has developed. Being a football player, I assume he will employ something like the touch of Pop Warner, Bernie Bierman, Wallace Wade, or Lynn Waldorf in it. I'll offer my opinion on his two weak side or perhaps a double spring. The latter, because he has been so successful in the past, and wrestling will never let him be said that I cast the first stone.
